WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirtieth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for assigning the right of patronage of the district or new parish of Saint Andrew, Lambeth, in the county of Surrey, and diocese of Winchester.

"Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, that it shall be lawful, by the authority therein provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying such scheme), at any time to assign the right of patronage of any district or new parish constituted under the provisions of the said Act, and the nomination of the minister or perpetual curate thereof respectively, either in perpetuity, or for one or more nomination or nominations, to any ecclesiastical corporation, aggregate or sole, or to either of the Universities of Oxford, Cambridge, or Durham, or to any college therein respectively, or to any person or persons, or the nominee or nominees of such person or persons or body respectively, upon condition of such corporation, university, college, person or persons, contributing to the permanent endowment of such minister or perpetual curate, or towards providing a church or chapel for the use of the inhabitants of such district or new parish, in such proportion and in such manner as shall be approved by the like authority:

"And whereas by a scheme duly prepared and laid before your Majesty in Council by us, and an Order ratifying the same, made by your Majesty in Council on the sixth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty six, and duly gazetted, the said district of Saint Andrew, Lambeth, was duly constituted out of the district of Saint John the Evangelist, Waterloo-road, Lambeth:

"And whereas no assignment of the right of patronage of the said district has yet been made, under the herein-recited enactment:

"And whereas arrangements are now in progress for the erection of a church within the said district, to be offered for approval by us, and for consecration by the bishop of the diocese, as the church or chapel of such district, for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof; and a sum of four thousand pounds has been contributed and paid to us, upon trust, to be applied towards the building of the said church:

"And whereas the persons by whom the said sum of four thousand pounds has been so as aforesaid contributed and paid to us, have duly nominated to us the five several persons hereinafter named and described as trustees of the right of patronage of the said district and the nomination of the minister thereof; and it has been proposed to us that, in consideration of the contribution aforesaid, such right of patronage and nomination should be assigned to such persons as such trustees, and that vacancies in the trusteeship of such patronage should be filled up from time to time in manner hereinafter mentioned:

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that the right of patronage of the said district or new parish of St. Andrew, Lambeth, and the nomination of the minister or perpetual curate thereof, shall be assigned to and vested in Sir Walter Farquhar, of Saint James's-street, Baronet, John Labouchere, of No. 16, Portland-place, Esquire, Robert Cooper Lee Bevan, of Trent Park, in the county of Herts, Esquire, Benjamin Shaw, of No. 8, Cambridge-square, Esquire, and Charles James Bevan, of No. 70, Portland-place aforesaid, Esquire, as trustees duly nominated to us for that purpose, and that such right of patronage and nomination shall for ever thereafter be exercised by the same persons, or the survivors or survivor of them, as such trustees or trustee, and by such future trustee or trustees, being a member or members of the United Church of England and Ireland, as shall from time to time be nominated in writing under the hands or hand of the trustees or trustee for the time being, or the major part of them, in the place and stead of any one or more of them who shall from time to time die, resign, or become incapable of acting; provided always, that the number of such trustees shall not at any time exceed five.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Winchester.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 16th day of October 1852,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, holden in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes;" and of the third section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the second and third years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, in the words following; viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Chatham, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Rochester, it appears to them to be expedient that particular districts should be assigned to the consecrated churches of Saint John, in the town of Chatham, and to Christ Church, at Luton, both in the said parish of Chatham, under and by virtue of the power or authority for this purpose contained in the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes;' and in the third section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the second and third years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the assignment of ecclesiastical districts to churches or chapels augmented by the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and for other purposes,' and that such proposed districts should be respectively named or called 'The District Chapelry of Saint John, Chatham,' and 'The District Chapelry of Luton,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:

"The district chapelry of Saint John, Chatham, commences at Saint Bartholomew's Chapel, in the High-street of Chatham, and proceeds south-eastwardly along the middle of that street to Clover-street; then south-westwardly up the middle of Clover-street into the New-road; thence south-eastwardly along the middle of the New-road to the turning to Joy's mill; thence southerly, along the middle of such turning, to Joy's mill; and from thence, including Joy's mill, to the boundary of the Ordnance land; and then along the boundary of the Ordnance land to the Maidstone Road, opposite Whittaker-terrace; then southward along the middle of the Maidstone Road to the turning to Hook and Hatchett-lane; thence along the middle of that turning, and down the middle of Hook and Hatchett-lane to Robin Hood-lane; and then along the middle of Robin Hood-lane to the boundary of the parish of Chatham; thence along the boundary of such parish westward, and afterwards northward, to the point where such district chapelry commenced, as the same is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured yellow.

"The district chapelry of Luton commences at East Villa, at the bottom of Chatham Hill, and proceeds along the boundary line of the parish of Chatham, south-eastwardly up Chatham Hill, to the boundary stone of the parishes of Chatham and Gillingham; thence southwardly along the boundary of those parishes, and afterwards westwardly along the boundary of the parishes of Chatham, Boxley, and Aylesford, to the point where such boundary crosses Robin Hood-lane; thence northwardly along the middle of Robin Hood-lane and Hook and Hatchett-lane as far as the footpath turning to Magpie Hall-lane; thence along the middle of that footpath and of Magpie Hall-lane; to the point where such district chapelry of Luton commenced, and as the same is more particularly delineated on the said map or plan hereunto annexed, and thereon coloured green.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed in Saint John's Church, and also in Christ Church aforesaid, and that the fees to arise therefrom should be paid and belong to the respective ministers or incumbents of the said two churches for the time being.

"That the consent of the Right Reverend George, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Acts and sections hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made; and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Rochester.
